

Tennis in Palm Springs

If you are a tennis player, make sure to pack your racquet! The Palm Springs area is home to some of the best tennis courts and playing weather in the United States. Two city parks in Palm Springs provide tennis courts that are free to use. Otherwise, most of the tennis courts throughout Palm Springs are private and semi-private. However, some private clubs occasionally open to allow for daytime visitor use (see link below under Further Options for updates).

The Coachella Valley is home to Palm Springs and several nearby desert towns, all within short driving distances. So, we've also included a couple of venues in other towns.
